

DYNAMITING OLD BARGE

Sunken Hulk Off Pier 7 Being Blown to Pieces.

WENT DOWN MANY YEARS AGO

Vessel Plied in Coastwise Trade
Soon After First Coal Docks Were Built—First Blasts Caused Excitement Along the Water Front.

After lying at the bottom of James river near Chesapeake & Ohio pier No. 7 for many years, the old wooden hulk of a coastwise coal barge is being dynamited by divers of the Merritt-Chapman Wrecking Company. The first blast set off under the old hull created considerable excitement along the water front. The long-shoremen employed on pier No. 6, nearby, thought the report that of a steamer crashing into pier No. 6 and they rushed to the end of the dock. Men employed in shipping offices nearby also hurried to the scene thinking that some accident had occurred.

The sunken hulk is that of a coal barge that plied in the coastwise coal trade out of this port soon after the first coal docks were built here. The vessel sprang a leak in this harbor and was beached near pier No. 7 and the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway officials decided to have it dynamited. The hull will be completely destroyed within a few days.

Five divers are engaged in the work, which must necessarily be carried on very slowly. Yesterday hundreds of people watched the divers at their work of destruction from pier No. 6 and along the River Road.

3,850 tons of coal, valued at $10,587.50

The British steamer Simonside arrived in port yesterday from New York to load a full cargo of coal here for ports in the West Indies.

The United States army transport Kilpatrick sailed yesterday afternoon for Havana, Cuba. The vessel took a number of passengers and a large quantity of supplies and stores for the army of Cuban Pacification.

NORWEGIAN MAN-OF-WAR
COMING TO THE ROADS

Cruiser Harald Haarfagre Due to Arrive at Exposition About July 1.

Mr. C. N. Arnal, the Norwegian vice consul at this port, yesterday received official notice that the Norwegian armored cruiser Harald Haarfagre will arrive in Hampton Roads about July 1 to represent Norway at the Jamestown Exposition.

The cruiser is now at New York and she is the first warship flying the Norwegian flag to enter American waters. How long she will stay in the Roads is as yet unknown, but it is expected that she will be here two weeks or more.

To Elect New Principal.

It is expected that the board of trustees of the Newport News Academy will hold a meeting next week to elect a successor to Professor Ligo, who resigned as principal to go with the faculty of the Richmond Academy. The meeting was scheduled for this week but President Boatwright, of Richmond College, has not notified the trustees that he has secured the services of a proper man for the place.

Must Make Reports.

W. A. Crump, D. I. Clayton and J. E. Bradley, shipping agents who were in the police court yesterday charged with violating the city ordinance regulating the conduct of their business, were warned that they must make weekly reports of the men shipped by them to Chief of Police Reynolds, in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance.

Postponed Again.

The taking of depositions in the case of the depositors against the Savings Bank of Newport News and the officers and directors of that institution, which was to have been in session yesterday, was postponed on account of the absence of Attorney R. G. Bickford, who is in Washington on business for the ship yard.

Democratic Committee.

There will be a meeting of the city Democratic committee at the city hall tonight for the purpose of naming judges and clerks for the legislative primary to be held on June 29.

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed for coughs and colds 50c and $1.00, at all druggists. Trial bottle free.

POLICE CHIEFS COME

HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Plans Changed So as to Make

Visit a Day Earlier Than Expected.

CHIEF REYNOLDS WILL BE HOST

Mayor Buxton and Delegation Carry
Formal Invitation from Newport
News—Luncheon at Hotel Pocahontas and Trip Through Shipyard
Features of Program.

A change has been made in the plans of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, and the chiefs will visit this city today instead of tomorrow. The visitors are due to reach here this afternoon at 1 o'clock and special cars will be waiting at Ivy avenue, with the Engine Company's band, to take them to the Hotel Pocahontas, where luncheon will be served at once.

After luncheon the chiefs will be taken to the shipyard and conducted through America's greatest shipbuilding plant, after which they will be shown the waterfront, railway terminals and other points of interest. At 5:30 o'clock they will return to the Exposition. The Newport News and Old Point Railway and Electric Company has tendered Chief of Police Reynolds, who will be the host in the name of the city today, the use of special cars free of charge.

Chief Reynolds attended the session of the International Association yesterday and elected for a member of the body, among the members of which he already had many friends. Today he will go over again, this time accompanied by Mayor Buxton, City Sergeant Miltstead and Mr. A. H. Horwitz, chairman of the Exploitation Commission. When the morning session adjourns, the mayor will formally extend the chiefs an invitation to visit Newport News.

A delegation of citizens will go down to Ivy avenue pier to welcome the visitors when they arrive.

CUTTER ITASCA WILL GO UP COAST IN TOW

Little Vessel Is Receiving Finishing
Touches and Is Due to Leave
Tomorrow or Saturday.

After being fitted out at the United States Revenue Cutter Service training station at Curtis Bay, Baltimore, the handsome little revenue cutter Itasca, which has just been remodeled and rebuilt at the local shipyard, will take the cadets at that station on a cruise to the Mediterranean Sea.

The Itasca is now receiving her finishing touches at the shipyard and she will leave this port for Curtis Bay either tomorrow or Saturday. In tow of the revenue cutter Apache, which arrived here from Baltimore yesterday morning, Captain John White, commanding the Apache, will accept the Itasca from the shipyard officials on behalf of the revenue cutter service. When fitted out the vessel will be commanded by Captain Reynolds, at present in command of the training bark Chase, and she will be manned by the crew of that vessel.

Lieutenant O'Malley, of the revenue cutter service, who has superintended the work of rebuilding the Itasca, will go to Curtis Bay on the vessel to look after the equipment of her at that station. Since he has been here Lieutenant O'Malley has made many friends who will regret his departure.

TRAINING FLEET SAILS

Midshipmen Finish Annual Inspection of the Ships.

Having completed the annual tour of inspection of the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Company, several hundred midshipmen of the Annapolis Naval Academy sailed from this port yesterday for Newport, L. I., aboard the protected cruiser Olympia and the monitors Nevada, Florida and Arkansas.

The fleet arrived here from Hampton Roads last Friday. After going through the usual drills at Newport, the Midships will cruise up the Atlantic coast to Maine and return to the naval academy in August.

WARWICK COUNTY FARM LANDS

Sample of Product Indicate That Fine
Results Can Be Accomplished.

There seems to be a general impression that Warwick county land, as well as the soil all over the lower Peninsula is almost worthless for trucking and farming purposes. Efforts to correct this impression should be successful if supported by some of the substantial evidence brought to the Daily Press office yesterday by Mr. T. M. Benson. Mr. Benson owns a farm in Warwick, just above this city, and on it he raises this year splendid crops of m'Het and clover, samples of which are now on exhibition in this office. The cover stalks are nearly four feet in length and are extraordinarily good specimens.

Fireman Hurt in Southern Wreck.
LYNCHBURG, VA., June 19.—About seven o'clock this morning a north-bound freight train on the Southern railway ran into an open switch in Jefferson street, near Washington street, crashing into a shifting engine, breaking up several cars and wrecking both engines. C. L. Watkins, of Danville, a fireman on the north-bound train, was injured, his left foot being badly crushed.

Rev. Dr. Lloyd Accepts Call.
LYNCHBURG, VA., June 19.—Dr. John J. Lloyd, rector of Grace Memorial Episcopal church, who was recently called by the council of the diocese of Southern Virginia to the work of an archdeacon, to take charge of the mission work of that church in Southwest Virginia, has decided to accept the call of the council.

Death of Infant.

Harry, the one year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnside of 1254 Twenty-eighth street, died yesterday morning at 1 o'clock. Funeral services will be held at the residence this morning at 11 o'clock. The body will be interred at Greenlawn cemetery.

Mr. Ashby to Speak.

Mr. C. Aylett Ashby, who is asking for the Democratic nomination for the State senate, will make two speeches this week. Tomorrow night he will address the voters of the Fourth ward from the bandstand of the North End Engine Company, and Saturday night he will be heard in the First ward, from the stand at Twenty-ninth street and Washington avenue.
